Dear Ben:

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to elite company – the NRT Top 100 Teams for the first quarter of 2015. Congratulations on this well-deserved honor!

While tight inventory levels and various other real estate market obstacles continue to provide formidable market challenges, your team has demonstrated the kind of professionalism that produces results and earns new business regardless of the real estate climate. By placing your clients' needs first and dedicating yourselves to outstanding service, you've risen to a position of unquestioned leadership. On behalf of myself and everyone at NRT, thank you for all of your hard work.

With such an impressive first quarter behind you, I look forward to seeing what you have planned for an encore and I'd like to wish you the very best throughout the remainder of 2015. Thank you again for helping make NRT "The Place to Be."

Sincerely,

Bruce Zipf
